Dear friends and supporters,

Thank you for helping St. Vincent Catholic Charities serve over 3,000 clients in 2017 through foster care, adoption, counseling, refugee services, the Immigration Law Clinic and our Children’s Home. The Annual Report is our opportunity to express our sincere gratitude for your generosity. It is because of your generous support and your relationships through volunteering or mentoring that we can come together and help the most vulnerable in our community. It is a chance for you to read about the impact your contributions are making on the lives of children and families.

We are inspired by Steve and Katherine Japinga who are joining the next generation of philanthropists. Steve and Katherine share how they have paved and maintained their own path toward meaning, family, faith and community.

Lastly, thank you to the many, many, community partners who give of their time, talent and treasure to help create a stronger community. We could not do our work without your support.

On behalf of STVCC and the Board of Directors, we express our gratitude for making it possible to provide help, create hope and transform lives.

Together, we are making a difference.

Yours in Faith,

Michael Maddox, Chair
Joseph Sambaer, Vice Chair and Treasurer

With their families and careers rooted in the Lansing area, new-vows Steve and Katherine Japinga feel a commitment to their Catholic community, specifically to serve and support the mission and vision of St. Vincent Catholic Charities (STVCC).

It is apparent the Japingas are representing the up and coming generation of the next Lansing philanthropists. As Deputy Communications Director for the Lansing Regional Chamber of Commerce, Katherine is involved in the Lansing Regional Chamber’s Guardian Society, and our re-involvement with STVCC began with Stefeni Collar, who asked us to sit at her table for the breakfast,” said Katherine. “After the breakfast, we both walked out wondering how can we do more, and how can we help. STVCC is everything you want in a charitable organization.”

Steve continued. “We have people that are mentoring us and passing on the torch, if you will. We need to lead by example for the younger generation and encourage others to step up and do their part for the community.”

He added, “People have the passion to give back. It’s not just about the money. Contribute with your time, volunteer, mentor and support third-party events,” said Steve. “It’s our Christian duty that we must give back to others.”

Thank you to our Guardian Society members for your long-term investment in the mission of St. Vincent Catholic Charities and the quality of care that we serve.
